UNITED RELIGIONS INITIATIVE

E U R O P E

URI (United Religions Initiative) is an internationally recognized interfaith network active in 75 countries with its global office in San Francisco, California. We cultivate and connect grass roots change-makers across religious, cultural and geographic boundaries, harnessing their collective power to take on religiously motivated violence and social, economic and environmental crises that destabilize regions and contribute to poverty.

THE

THE IDEA OF OUR RECOMMENDED LIST OF DVDs FOR URI CCs

Everybody likes films...

Films can be used for URI CCs as effective tools for peacemaking and for building interfaith relations.

The idea of publishing a booklet was born when we planned to support our CCs (Co-operation Circles) by giving them a collection of DVDs recommended for use during interfaith gatherings. They are useful for inspiring discussions with people interested in different religions and cultures.

Our idea was to get more concrete by learning about the work of the 20,000 Dialogues team, first of all on the internet and then personally as well. This took place in Mayapur during the URI Global and Youth Conference in India.

Daniel Tutt, one of the Project Managers, was a participant at the conference. He offered to send film material from his film project to all of our Co-operation Circles in order to enable them to become part of the project. Thank you to the 20,000 Dialogues team and especially to Daniel Tutt for his kind suggestion.

On the website <http://www.20000dialogues.org> you can also find very helpful information about how to introduce a film, how to invite people to the event and organize it, as well as how to evaluate it and break the ice during the program. (See page 20)

We would be pleased to receive your feedback.

WINGED MIGRATION

DOCUMENTARY

Jacques Perrin (MICROCOSMOS) presents this dramatically beautiful documentary about bird migratory patterns, featuring breathtaking photography and hypnotic music. The film covers seven continents during four seasons, highlighting species both unique and common. From puffins in Iceland, whooper swans in Japan, bald eagles in Alaska, flamingos in Kenya, macaw in Peru, geese in Nepal, and plenty of cranes and storks in the director's native France.

THE STORY OF THE WEEPING CAMEL

EFFORTLESSLY BLENDING DRAMA, NATURE DOCUMENTARY, AND ETHNOGRAPHIC FILM

MEAT THE TRUTH

DOCUMENTARY

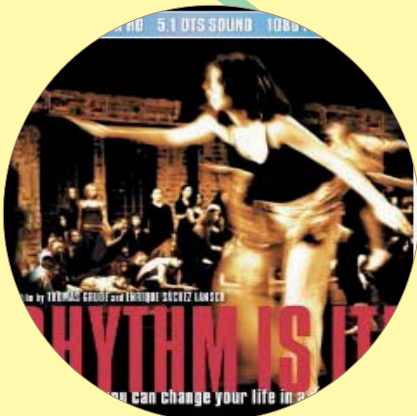

Meat the Truth is a high-profile documentary, presented by MP Marianne Thieme (leader of the Dutch party for the Animals), which forms an addendum to earlier films on climate change. Although such films have succeeded in drawing public attention to the issue of global warming, they have repeatedly ignored one of the most important causes of climate change: intensive livestock production.

YOUNG@HEART

A FILM FROM STEVEN WALKER
NEVER TOO OLD TO ROCK

Time revises every taste and closes every gap. To observe the Young@Heart Chorus, a fluctuating group of about two dozen singers whose average age is 80, perform „Stayin‘ Alive“ by the Bee Gees in Stephen Walker’s documentary „Young@Heart“ is to be uplifted, if slightly unsettled.... These singers, most of them well-rehearsed amateurs, refuse to go gently into that good night. For them music is oxygen.

AS IT IS IN HEAVEN (SÅ SOM I HIMMELEN)

A successful international conductor suddenly interrupts his career and returns alone to his childhood village in Norrland, in the far north of Sweden. It doesn't take long before he is asked to come and listen to the fragment of a church choir, which practises every Thursday in the parish hall. Just come along and give a little bit of good advice. He can't say no, and from that moment, nothing in the village is the same again.

SPRING, SUMMER, AUTUMN, WINTER ... AND SPRING

IS A 2003 SOUTH KOREAN FILM ABOUT A BUDDHIST MONASTERY WHICH FLOATS ON A LAKE IN A PRISTINE FOREST.

This is one of the very few films which has a real spiritual dimension; it bears that dimension lightly, and persuasively transmits a Buddhist conviction that time, age and youth are an illusion. A charming and rewarding film.

What is URI (United Religions Initiative)?

The United Religions Initiative (URI) is a global interfaith network, created by a diverse community of people committed to promoting enduring daily interfaith co-operation, ending religiously motivated violence and creating cultures of peace, justice and healing.

Founded in the year 2000 by activists from all continents, belonging to over a hundred different religions, worldviews, spiritual expressions and indigenous traditions, URI presently includes approximately four hundred interfaith groups, called Co-operation Circles (CCs), with over a million people in more than seventy-five countries worldwide.

URI has been established in an evolving process over fifteen years since 1995, with thousands of people involved in co-creating its design and founding document, the URI Charter.

The member groups, called Co-operation Circles (abbreviated CCs), consist of at least seven people from at least three religions, spiritual expressions and indigenous traditions, who support and accept the URI Charter.

Individual members and associations are welcomed as affiliates or supporting members with limited rights and responsibilities.

The size of our network has increased six-fold in just ten years, and we are currently growing at a rate of twenty-three percent per year.

URI works in eight world regions, one of which is Europe.

It has special consultative status with the United Nations (UN).

URI Europe is registered as an international non-profit organization in Antwerp, Belgium.

URI Europe currently has thirty inter-religious membership-organizations, called Co-operation Circles, in fourteen countries. Additional circles are in their founding-stage and their number is growing.

Basque Country/Spain, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Catalonia/Spain, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Italy, Netherlands, Romania, Russia, Spain, Tajikistan, Turkey, United Kingdom.

You are welcome to found or register your own circle.

How you can get involved:

- Found an interfaith Co-operation Circle (CC)
- Register an existing interfaith group or organization as a URI CC

A CC (Co-operation Circle) consists of a minimum of seven members of at least three different religions, spiritual expressions or indigenous traditions and works in line with the URI Charter.
